Dear Guidance Counselor(s):

The Hammond Hispanic Community Committee is pleased to announce we are awarding the following scholarships in 2018 to minority students of Hispanic or Latino heritage who will graduate from a Hammond High School:

- Two (2) scholarships in the amount of $2,500 for attendance at a college or university
- Two (2) scholarships in the amount of $1,000 for attendance at a technical or trade school
- One (1) scholarship in the amount of $1,000 offered by Hammond-Whiting Care Center towards obtaining Certified Nursing Associate (CNA) accreditation

We would appreciate your posting the enclosed application requirements in your building and on your website. You may print copies from our website at www.hhccin.com.

Only winners will be notified of decisions following approval by the HHCC Board.

The application deadline is February 23, 2018. All applications need to come from the Guidance Department. Please assist students in ensuring their applications and accompanying materials are complete by the deadline. I have enclosed copies of the application form. Mail completed applications to:
